Fire in the basement of the Sparta building early Tuesday morning destroyed the expensive machinery and equipment in the confectionery store and caused a loss to the proprietor, Christ Baruxs, estimated at $15,000. Peeney & Brown, tailors, on the second floor, suffered the loss of a valuable stock of linings. The loss on the building, owned by James Linehan, is estimated at $1,000.

The alarm of fire was given shortly after 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. Captain Swank, with two patrolmen, was on South Fourth street when the smoke was seen. A great volume of black smoke poured from the rear of the building. Captain Swank stationed a man at the corner of Fourth and West Main and went to investigate and find the location of the fire, signalled to them to give the alarm.

The fire emanated from the basement and had consumed part of the rear of the first floor. The entire building was filled densely with smoke. While the flames did not extend over a great area, the blaze continued for some time despite the efforts of the fire-ladders. The density of the smoke made it difficult to determine the exact location of the fire and after it was extinguished, the boys piled the hose for an hour because of the possibility of small flames somewhere in the depths of the smoke.

Mr. Baruxs, the proprietor is visiting in West Baden, Ind., and the two sons, James and Peter, aged 13 and 17, were left in charge. The boys left the store about a quarter before one. They could give no light on the probable cause of the fire.

The building is the property of Linehan Bros. Neither of the owners knew anything about the location of the fire until Tuesday morning. James Linehan was called and told that there was a fire on the west side of the square but not until six o'clock Tuesday morning did he know it was in his property.

The Baruxs boys made no effort to recover anything from the building. Most of the equipment was heavy or fastened to the floor or wall. The boys estimated the value of the fixtures and machinery at $15,000. The

CONG. ASHBROOK NAMES SHREVE'S NEW POSTMASTER

Washington, Aug. 19.—Representative William A. Ashbrook has sent to Postmaster-General Burleson his recommendation that Captain Wiley M. Miller be named as Postmaster at Shreve, Wayne county, an office paying $1,500 a year. Captain Miller is a Spanish War veteran, having served as a captain three years under Gen. A. B. Crutcher. He was inducted by many veterans of the civil and Spanish wars.

100 KILLED OR HURT IN MEXICO CITY

Mexico City, Aug. 19.—An explosion on a gondola loaded with dynamite on the tracks of a street car company in a thickly settled portion of Tlatelbaya, a suburb of the capital, killed or injured more than 100 persons, chiefly women and children early this morning.

Thirty bodies already have been taken from the ruins of the houses. Scores of wounded are lying in the streets.

The disaster is said to have been caused by a car loaded with iron pipe crushing into the dynamite car. For a radius of 500 feet from the scene of the explosion not a house was left intact and not a vestige of many of the buildings remained. Most of the dwellings were of adobe construction and those nearest to where the car stood were converted into heaps of clay and dust under which it is estimated scores of victims will be found. The persons killed belong for the most part to the laboring class.

Union Street Residents Want Car Tracks In Center of Road; Council Will Aid Texas People

Trouble which has been brewing in Union street, broke out in council meeting Monday night because of the moving of the Ohio Electric tracks from the center of the street to one side. A protest was registered by property owners on the street. In answer to this demand council adopted a resolution asking that the railway company build the tracks as near the center of the street as possible in accordance with the franchise.

Outside of the routine there was nothing of interest in the meeting. The assembly was called to order with Muenz in the chair, all councilmen present. The only break in the routine occurred when Mr. Pryor anxious to set a favorable date for the next meeting which ordinarily would occur on September 1st, insisted upon adjourning at once in order to set the time for the next meeting and get that important item disposed of before proceeding with the regular business. Mr. Juch solved the problem by suggesting that council meet on September 1st, and adjourn to some convenient date.

Engineer Wells submitted a preliminary estimate on the improvement of Pataskala street from third to German at $1110.

Protest was presented from property owners on Union against the placing of Ohio Electric track at one side of the street.

An ordinance was read providing for the improvement of South Williams street from West Main to Union—curbing and paving the roadway.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Charge de Affaires O'Shaughnessy cabled Secretary Bryan from Mexico City early today that President Huerta, through Foreign Minister Gamboa, emphatically denied that there was "any foundation whatever" for the statement that President Huerta has issued an ultimatum to the United States demanding recognition with the alternative of handing Mr. O'Shaughnessy his passports.

Senators Lodge and Stone were shown the following cablegram to Secretary Bryan from Charge de Affaires O'Shaughnessy, dated last night and received at 4 a. m. today: "The correspondents have cabled that the Mexican government has stated that its note to Lind demands that the United States recognize the Huerta government before 12 o'clock midnight today or a statement practically to that effect."

"I brought the matter to the urgent attention of the minister of foreign affairs at 10 p. m. He immediately saw the president and Minister Gobernacion, Senor Urrutia, who is supposed to have given out the statement and he authorized me to deny this statement to my government as having no foundation in fact."

The senators also were shown a dispatch from John Lind, in which he said: "Spent two hours with Huerta at his suggestion. Very cordial." The message was received at 2:10 a. m. today.

The senators conferred briefly with President Wilson and as they left the White House said that they were satisfied that alarming reports were not justified. They still were hopeful that Mr. Lind's efforts to bring about an amicable understanding would be successful.

Both senators were acquainted with the contents of Huerta's note to the American government cabled by Charge O'Shaughnessy to the state department. Although the tone of the note is scornful in its rejection of the American suggestions, nothing in it related to an ultimatum or a demand for recognition.

Neither at the National Palace nor the American embassy would details be given out, but it is understood that Mr. Lind considered the so-called ultimatum announced through Dr. Urrutia, minister of the interior, last night as unauthorized, although it is not claimed that President Huerta specifically denied having made the peremptory demand for recognition as credited to him in Dr. Urrutia's statement. This was to the effect that the United States would be given until midnight to agree to recognition of the Huerta administration under threat of severing all relations.

Mr. Lind has always believed that he could accomplish much if permitted to talk personally with the president and there is reason to believe as a result of their conference between two plain-speaking old men, the attitude of the president of Mexico may be changed notwithstanding that the first steps toward a diplomatic break had already been taken. The gravity of the situation is at least considerably relieved for the immediate present.

A dispatch from John Lind informed President Wilson and Secretary Bryan that he had been in conference with Provisional President Huerta at an early hour today. He characterized his reception and conference with Huerta as "cordial."

Last night's dispatches attributing the announcement of an ultimatum by Huerta to Minister Urrutia of the department of the interior stirred official circles here deeply.

Secretary Bryan read the morning newspapers and hurried down to his office where he found the reassuring cable from Charge de Affaires O'Shaughnessy and then hurried over to the White House to confer with President Wilson. While there the message came from Mr. Lind telling of the conference with Huerta.

Members of the senate foreign relations committee alarmed by the apparent gravity of the situation hurried down to the White House to ask for a conference with President Wilson.

There seemed to be a division of opinion among them as to whether Minister Urrutia's announcement was unauthorized. Some were strongly given by Foreign Minister Gamboa. Charge de Affaires O'Shaughnessy inclined to accept the explanation as a dispatch backed up by Mr. Lind's served to dispel the impression the first news dispatches had created and the official views changed around to a general belief that while the situation was a delicate one there was hope of some satisfactory conclusion so long as conferences were continuing between Huerta and Lind. It was generally understood that while the negotiations were still in progress, the Mexican government's request that publication of President Wilson's views as presented by Mr. Lind be withheld from publication would be respected and that they might not be given out today.

SENATE RESTS CASE.

Washington, Aug. 19.—A general disposition in the senate to demand some definite statement from the administration was headed off by Senators Lodge, Bacon and Stone, who withheld direct information from the White House.

Senators Penrose had prepared to speak again on his resolutions asking for reports on Mexican conditions and the official status of William Bayard Hale. Senator Lodge urged him to delay and after a conference between the two on the floor, Senator Penrose took his seat without raising the Mexican question. Later he asked that his resolution be allowed to go over for two or three days without action.

The Penrose resolution asking what measures had been taken to protect Americans in Mexico, also went over without debate.

PHYSICIAN IS NAMED IN AFFIDAVIT

Following the filing of the report of the coroner in the inquest into the death of Helen McAndrews, an affidavit was filed before Justice of the Peace George W. Horton Tuesday afternoon charging a local physician with being responsible for the death of Miss McAndrews because of his connection with the alleged illegal operation.

The warrant was placed in the hands of Constable Richter for service but at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the defendant had not been brought into court.

It is understood that the physician has retained counsel and is aware of the action taken by the prosecuting attorney. The Advocate is informed that upon service of the warrant, the defendant will appear before Squire Horton, enter a plea of not guilty and waive examination.

It is also understood that the defendant will be bound over to the grand jury under bond in the sum of $1,000, this amount being furnished immediately.

Pending the service of the warrant, the name of the defendant is withheld.

SOFT DRINKS SUIT "BOOZE" COMMISSION

Columbus, Aug. 19.—Only soft drinks are indulged in by the individuals who compose the state liquor license commission. This fact was the basis of an amusing incident today.

"Have a care, don't jostle these drinks and let me off at the booze commission room on the sixth floor," said a waiter to the elevator conductor as an official of the anti-saloon league listened attentively and looked on with evident suspicion. The lad carried a tray laden with iced lemonades.

When the sixth floor was reached the lad stepped off and went straight to the hearing room of the state liquor license commission and placed the lemonade before Messrs. Allen, Clendenen and Seccrest, who comprise the board.

"This may be called a 'booze commission,' but only soft drinks go here," said President Allen, as he slipped the iced beverage through a straw or rather a pair of them.

GOSSIPS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR TRAGEDY

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 19.—Frantic because he had heard unfounded reports reflecting on his wife's character, John Marshall this morning fired five bullets into her body as they sat at the breakfast table in their home in Martins Ferry, across the Ohio river from here.

Chief of Police Edward Hyland, who lived next door, heard the shots and forced the door to the Marshall house. Marshall fled to the attic and his neighbor summoned other policemen, who surrounded the house. Finding escape cut off Marshall blew out his brains.

Mrs. Marshall was killed in the presence of four of her six children.

ATTORNEYS CLASH IN BURKE CASE

Question of Admitting Certain Testimony Causes Rumpus

BURKE LOSES POINT

Commission Refuses to Allow Testimony Implicating Superiors to Be Presented—Little New Evidence is Offered.

Spley developments promised by attorneys for Patrolman C. O. Burke under suspension from service pending hearing of charges preferred by Police Chief Sheridan, came during the hearing before the civil service commission Tuesday. The session was held in the council chamber in the Trust building. Attorneys hoped to conclude it by evening.

The tense moment came Tuesday when former police chief Elmer Blizard was on the witness stand for the defense, when Attorney F. B. Smythe put a question to Blizard regarding his knowledge as to whether officers and patrolmen in uniform had ever been known to join superior officers and officials in a drink in barroom. Before the witness had an opportunity to answer the question, Safety Director Collier, apparently thoroughly aroused, interrupted proceedings, shouting at the attorney: "Go on with your dirty work. We know that's what you intend to do."

This was followed by a sharp exchange of questions and answers between Attorney Smythe and the commission in which Mr. Collier was accused of interfering with the commissions hearing. Mr. Smythe was assured that the commission was hearing the case and he was directed to proceed.

"I am not surprised at this interruption," said Smythe, "in view of the rumor that has reached my ears that Mr. Collier boasted he was going to 'run things,'" continued the attorney, warmly. "I don't believe you ever heard any such a rumor," retorted Collier. Attorney Smythe then inserted in the record the defense's offer to prove that during May, 1913, and on occasions prior to that time it had been customary for officials in drink in the various barrooms in this city with police officers in uniform and at the invitation of the officials named.

Attorneys for Burke explained that they desired to introduce such evidence in support of their contention that even if it had been proven that Burke drank on duty, as alleged in one of the charges that it was in accord with custom and example set by his official superiors.

Chairman Phillips said the commission would not permit any testimony to be offered on this point. The commission also overruled the attempt of the defense to prove its allegation that one patrolman became intoxicated on three particular occasions and created disturbances for which the defense contended, he had not been subjected to prosecution as had Burke.

Former Chief Blizard testified to the existence of what appeared to be a grudge between Captain Swank and Patrolman Burke, and said Swank repeatedly brought complaints to him against Burke.

Considerable time was given Tuesday forenoon to investigation of the charge of disobedience of a superior officer, in which it was contended Burke failed to observe an order of Captain Swank on May 6. Former Chief Blizard testified he was at the lake a part of the day and that Swank was supposed to be off duty during the day time he had turned over to Burke the charge of affairs at headquarters. This, the defense contended was in accord with custom. The prosecution says it was in violation of rules.

Despite the fact that attorneys for Burke explained that the statutes make long established custom a rule, the commission held that rules promulgated by Safety Director Collier were the rules by which the department should be governed, notwithstanding precedent or custom, and consequently refused to admit testimony tending to prove the custom of delegating to day patrolmen the authorities of the chief in the latter's absence.

Captain Swank, Patrolman Charles Moore, and Miss Clara Reicker, former police telephone operator, were witnesses called by the prosecution. The defense called for the following witnesses, but not all were present during the forenoon session: Glenn McDevitt, Elmer Blizard, F. M. Swartz, George Abbott, Ed. Hubbard, Ham Stewart, Homer Brickles, Jake Schneider, "Chicken" Lucas, Ross Jenkins, John Loughman, Mrs. John Loughman, Charles Henry, John Clendenen, Charles Odenthauk, Frank Sheppard, William Bergen, Harold Franklin, Robert White, Charles Schaller, Howard Iatthun, Harry Wheeler, Lewis Bolton, Walley Davidson, Harry Frad, Milton Taylor, Tom Egan, Jim Richter, Richard Ioid, George Fromholtz, John Brown, Dr.

Once during the cross-examination of Captain Swank by Attorney Smythe, the witness showed hesitation about giving the exact language of the order he alleges he gave Burke and which he declares the latter failed to obey. E. Cary Norris of the commission halted the questioning long enough to tell Captain Swank the commission would expect to hear his answer to the question and that he must answer it. Captain Swank replied that he would do as before, answer it to the best of his ability, but that he could not remember the exact words he used.

The council chamber was filled with witnesses and spectators and with the promised sensational developments, much of which the defense succeeded in getting into the records, the afternoon session witnessed even a larger crowd.

GLYNN AIDED BY OPINION OF STATE ATTORNEY

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—That Governor William Sulzer will decline to abide by the opinion of Attorney General Carmody declaring Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn to be the acting governor of the state, but will seek a court decision to test the legality of his impeachment by the assembly, was the general opinion expressed in official circles today. Both Mr. Sulzer and his counsel declined to discuss the attorney general's findings.

Some of the state departments which have been wavering as to whether they should continue to recognize Mr. Sulzer as chief executive are expected to follow the advice of the attorney general and accept Mr. Glynn as the acting head of the state government.

WOMAN'S SLAYER ADMITS HIS CRIME

Cincinnati, Aug. 19.—George Scordulis, a baker, was arrested early today at Hamilton, Ohio, returned to this city and charged with the murder of Lillian Tyler, alias Grace Stanley, whose mutilated body was found last night in a ravine near Sedamsville, a suburb. For many years the murdered woman had been the mistress of Scordulis. Scordulis is said to have confessed.

Pacific Steamer Hits Rock And Sinks With Many of Passengers In Staterooms

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 19.—Twenty-five or more passengers and seven members of the crew of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's steamer, State of California, perished Sunday in Cambier Bay, 90 miles south of Juneau when the vessel struck an uncharted rock and sank in three minutes with many passengers' imprisoned in their staterooms.

The steamer left Skagway last Wednesday night for Seattle and way points. The purser lost all of his records, and it is not possible to give a complete list of the missing. Following is a list of the dead whose bodies have been recovered: Mrs. A. Birnbaum, Mrs. Stella Reardon, Miss Clara Van De Lass, Los Angeles.

Miss Lilla Ward, daughter of Edward C. Ward, assistant manager of the Pacific Coast Steamship company, died after being taken off a life raft. Mrs. Nellie B. Ward, mother of Miss Ward.

Four unidentified women. Following is a partial list of the missing, who are believed to have perished: Miss Anne L. Cassidy, Miss May Dixon, W. A. Dyer, Milwaukee, Blanche Fridt, Portland, Ore. Minnette E. Harlan, Portland, Ore. Leslie Hobbs, manager of the Pacific Coast Steamship company's office in San Francisco. J. Holman, Miss Alice Johnson, Lillian B. Norman, Nick Pittulas, Miss Reardon, Mrs. C. E. Spithill and child, Ben A. Wade, Miss Wilson.

The uninjured survivors, crew and passengers, are being taken to Seattle on the steamer Jefferson and will arrive there Thursday.

A great hole was torn in the bottom of the State of California. The vessel and cargo, mail and express are a total loss. The ship was valued at $100,000.

President-Elect In Granville But Decision On Offer Made By Trustees Is Not Announced

Granville, O., Aug. 19.—Dr. Clark W. Chamberlain, who was elected president of Denison University at the June meeting of the board of trustees was in Granville for a short time today conferring with members of the Denison faculty. While here Dr. Chamberlain, who has just returned from a trip to Europe, was a guest at the Utman home. He left this afternoon for Cleveland, where he will see his brother, John, and afterwards go to Poughkeepsie, N. Y. where for several years he has been a member of the Vassar faculty.

So far as can be ascertained, Dr. Chamberlain gave no intimation of

COMPANIONS DETAINED

Prisoner Freely Admitted His Identity—The King's Counsel Acts for U. S. Authorities—Held as Fugitive From Justice.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 19.—The Canadian immigration authorities declared this afternoon that Harry K. Thaw would be deported from Canada under the immigration regulations.

The final disposition this morning at Hermenegilde-Garford, a village near here, an hour before he had driven across the line from New Hampshire. He admitted his identity and complacently declared he could not be extradited as he had committed no crime.

Two men who are supposed to have accompanied Thaw in his spectacular flight from the insane hospital at Matteawan, New York, last Sunday morning, were in his company and were also detained.

They were charged with being under "suspicion of having committed an offense in another and friendly nation." The two men, one of large build, and the other a smaller man, at once retained counsel and refused to disclose their identity.

The $500 reward for Thaw's arrest belongs to Sheriff B. H. Kealey of Colebrook, N. H., who recognized Thaw on a Maine Central railroad train last night. After the fugitive had left the train at Hartford, Kealey pursued him to Hermenegilde-Garford, where, at the request of the sheriff a Canadian constable placed the fugitive under arrest.

Hermenegilde-Garford is a small village two miles south of this place and Thaw was brought here. Though he had already admitted his identity to Sheriff Kealey, he at first denied that he was the man who escaped.

PRISONER WILL BE WITNESS FOR STATE IN FRAUD HEARING

Columbus, Aug. 18. William Martin of Cincinnati, who is held in the county jail on a charge of perjury in connection with the referendum on the Greenback party's compensation act, will be one of the star witnesses for the state in the hearing before Secretary of State Graves, which begins Thursday. He was again in consultation with the governor yesterday, and it is said he has promised to connect some of the "high-ups."

The governor has advised him to tell all he knows. It was hinted at the conference that he had divulged several names, heretofore unknown, Governor Cox was well pleased with the revelations, which, he thinks, will strengthen the state's case.

It was stated yesterday by persons examining the Wines and Kilpatrick law petitions that many sheets of names have been pinned or pasted on petitions. Whether these names will be valid, injects another issue into the hearing, it is said.

Genial Matthew Arnold.

In his "Memories" Hon. Stephen Colledge draws this picture of Matthew Arnold:

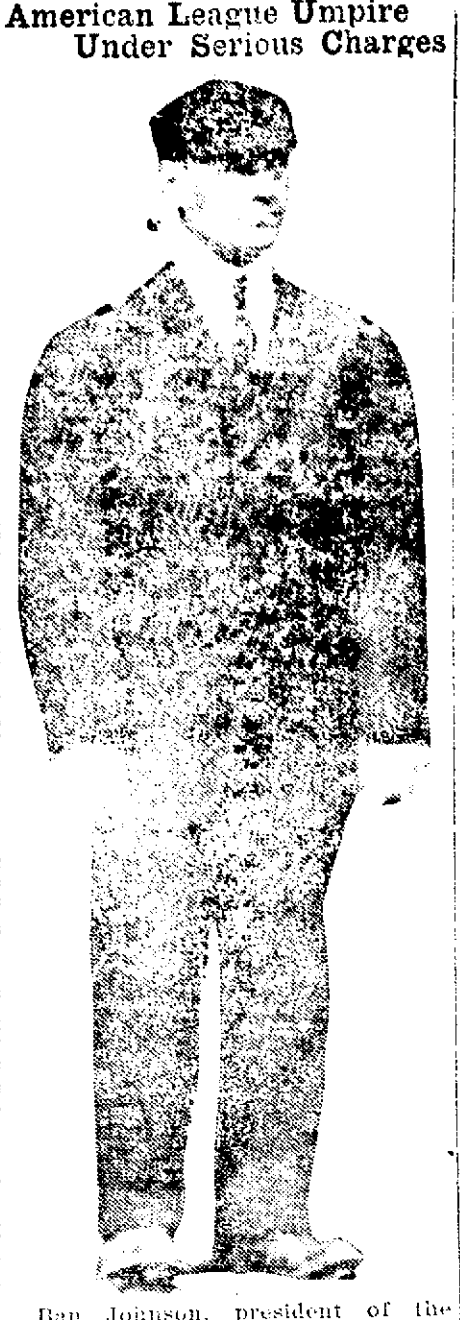

Of the poets I have known in the flesh he was by far the most interesting and charming. Full of humor and gentility, with a blend of the Olympian manner that was perfectly beautiful to all who understood him, children were never afraid of or shy with him, and he would discourse with them magnificently about their tests, assigning startling qualities to the with a twinkling gravity till the children discovered new wonders about the familiar playthings never before suspected.

He persuaded my son Johnnie, who he was about three years old, that he, Matthew Arnold, was his horse and kept up the joke at succeeding visits and sent him books with inscriptions "Johnnie, from his affectionate horse."

American League Umpire Under Serious Charges

Ban Johnson, president of the American League, must decide if Silk O'Loughlin, one of the umpires, called Pincus Roy Mitchell, of the St. Louis club, a "yellow cur," and if so is that proper language for an umpire to use toward a ball player.

Mitchell, who was pitching for the Browns, walked to the plate to bat in a game which O'Loughlin umpired.

"You missed two strikes on Mausel," said the pitcher. "You ought to keep your eyes open."

"Then," said George Stovall, manager of the team, who says he was also at the plate, "the umpire took off his mask, and answered: 'I missed them on purpose just to get a chance to chase you from the game, you yellow cur. You are a counterfeiter.'"

O'Loughlin denied he used the words. Other Brown players say he did.

Pop took me to the kuntry to see my Ant Soo yesterday, and while I was out there I started to look under the sofer in the settin room jest for fun and heer war wun der thare bar a good base bawl, and I sed, (P. Ant Soo, wats this base bawl doing under heer, and she sed, Jest taking a rest. I sippose, do you want it, and I sed, Yes, mann, our team can use this. Heeding kaptin of the Invinsibels and having to pervide most of the bawls.

On the way home the trane had so meny peepil in it it was pritty near full, and pop had to set neckst to sum fat lady and I sat down in the seer behind him, neckst to a little girl with a pink ribbin awn her hare and pink stockings had way up to her neck, the urthr had beeing jest legs, and as soon as I sat down she turned her hed eround and startid to look at me as if she never sawr a boy befor and aftr a wile she sed, Wats yur nam.

Wat do you want to no for, I sed, O jest beause, she sed, wat is it. Wats yures, I sed.

Jenny Kelly, she sed, now wats yures.

Benny Ports, I sed, and she sed, Wats that making yur cote pocket stick out, landy.

No, I sed, its only a base bawl, and she sed, I don't believe it, let me see. Wich I did, taking the base bawl out of my pocket and holdin it up, sayin, See it, and she sed, Let me see it in my hand.

Its ony a regular base bawl, I sed, starting to put it back in my pocket, and she sed, Please let me see it in my hand, I want her it, are you afreayd I'll hurt it.

Its jest a regular base bawl, I sed, And I let her see it in her hand, and she took it and looked at it a minit and then wat did she do but put it underneeth her and set awn it.

Thay, I sed, I want that, our teams going to play with that.

I dont care, she sed, and I sed, well I do, I want that. And she didnt say anything and another stayshin went past, and I sed, Hay, I want that, and she startid to look on of the wibls as if she wasent settin awn anything, and jest then her tenned eround, sayin, Get ready to dismark at the next stayshin, and. Then he turned eround agun and I sed to the girl, Are you going to give me that. And she kept lookin out of the windo and the trane startid to go slo and I kwiek reached outir her and tried to get the bawl and she startid to stretch like evn thing as if she was settin her ovir or something, and pop kwiek tenned eround, sayin, Wats the trouble, wats the trouble, for the lover kille.

Shes settin awn my base bawl and she wont get awf, I sed.

I am not, I am not, she yelled loud as anything, and I sed, Yure a big story teller, you are, and pop sed, Well, the trane stopped now, let the littel sufferajet hatch it out if she wats to and I'll buy you another wun.

And you and me got awf the trane, pop sayin, That awt to be a lesin to you. Wich may be it will be.

KENTUCKIAN POOR MARKSMAN WITH FEUDIST'S WEAPON

Columbus, O., Aug. 18. Ed Martin, 19 years old, is from Lawrence county, Ky., where feuds and side arms are numerous, but he is not an expert with a revolver. When he pulled a gun yesterday afternoon during a quarrel with Mint Austin, poolroom proprietor at Fourth street and Barthman avenue, he nipped Austin in the right leg and shot himself through the left thumb.

Martin denies that he attempted to shoot Austin, declaring that the revolver was discharged accidentally while he was handing it to his landlady to keep it out of the quarrel. The poolroom proprietor said the Kentuckian certainly would have shot him if he hadn't got his thumb over the muzzle of the gun.

Eczema That Spreads.

How a Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Man Found Relief in Our Reliable Skin Remedy, Saxo Salve.

"I had been troubled with weeping eczema for months and used many preparations for skin troubles without relief. The first application of Saxo Salve allayed the dreadful itching immediately and after further use my skin trouble entirely disappeared. Saxo Salve was just what I needed."—W. H. Glyn, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

In eczema the little vesicles or pimples are filled with a fluid that burns and tortures the skin the moment they are torn open by scratching. This causes it to spread.

In such cases we can conscientiously recommend our new skin remedy, Saxo Salve, for its action on the skin in all forms of eczema and other distressing skin troubles is indeed marvelous.

If it does not help you we will return your money. Frank D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

P. S. If you have any skin trouble you need Viofor for the blood. We guarantee it.

Uncle Walt's Philosophy

Solid Comfort.

I sit me down in the inglenook with a loaded pipe and a corking book of the rattling Rex Beach kind, and I do not care what the statesmen do, what plans they form or what routes pursue, to all of their tricks I'm blind. At the tariff grind they may break their backs, they may strain themselves at the income tax as often they have before. I'm reading now of a man who goes on carnage boat through Alaska snows with a gun and a pile of gore. I'm reading now the heroic tale of mighty men in the arctic gale a-making their fearful trips; I'm all worked up over these stalwart chaps and I do not care what the jumping Japs may do with their shakily ships. I'm tired of facts, though they're Vital Things. I'm tired of measures that congress springs. I'm tired of the White House news; it's good to roam in the desert place with a husky team and a crooked face, away to the snowy reach of the far Asia strand, to leave awhile the fiction road the daily grind and the heavy load, and this sad fact ridden land.

CAINE'S NEW BOOK CREATES A STIR

Hall Caine's new book "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," the first he has written in four years, created quite a stir in London where it was published a few days ago. The book will not be on sale in America until August 25.

Hall Caine has long been known as a serious writer on marriage and divorce. In "The Woman Thou Gavest Me" he presents a broad, general picture of marriage as it exists in the world today. It is a novel which should lead to a frank discussion of the problems connected with marriage and divorce and result in a better understanding of these vital subjects.

"This new book breathes the breath of life. It is the story of a beautiful, pure woman who goes through some of the fiercest tests which the responsibilities of marriage bring into human life. Hall Caine tells up in his preface that he has 'drawn more largely and directly from fact than is usually the practice of the novelist,' and no one after reading the tale will venture to question the statement, for many of the situations, strange and unlikely as they sometimes are, are only what one has met with in actual life either from personal experience or from the experiences of others. With wonderful skill they are described and worked into the development of the plot.

Prison a Breeding Place of Crime

By M'KENZIE CLELAND, Lawyer, President of the National Probation League

THE ONLY SOLUTION FOR THE PROBLEM OF CRIME WHICH IS ESTIMATED TO COST THE COUNTRY SIX BILLIONS OF DOLLARS A YEAR IS THE SUSPENDED SENTENCE OR PROBATION.

The prison is the connecting LINK BETWEEN CIVILIZATION AND SLAVERY. Were there no prisons now in existence it is inconceivable that enlightened society would adopt such an UNNATURAL AND UNSCIENTIFIC system for the treatment of defective members.

The prison has BUILT UP A PROFESSIONAL CRIMINAL CLASS. In every country there is a large and increasing class of professional criminals, practically all of whom have served one or more prison terms. It is estimated that the yearly earnings of these criminals in the United States exceed eight hundred million dollars. Every prison is necessarily a SCHOOL FOR CRIME, and in the United States alone approximately eight hundred thousand persons who are thus imprisoned annually are given a compulsory education in crime. IF THERE WERE NO JAILS THERE WOULD BE NO SCHOOLS FOR CRIME.

The Countrymen Were Frightened.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Why the Frogs Like The Water.

OUTSIDE a frog was croaking to one of its fellows. "What does the frog say, daddy?" Jack inquired.

"Oh, Dinah says the frog is telling everybody that there is going to be rain. Do you believe that, daddy?" Evelyn asked.

"I should not wish to contradict Dinah," daddy laughed. "We wouldn't tell her, you know," the children promised.

"Well, that would be thoughtful of you," daddy said. "And, while I hardly know what Mr. Froggie is saying out there, I will tell you a story I have read which shows us why there are frogs.

"Once upon a time, in the days when the old world was young and when the Greeks believed that gods and goddesses often left their beautiful homes in the sky and walked about the earth, some countrymen were at work by the side of a beautiful lake.

"As they worked a woman came through the woods carrying two little children in her arms. She was covered with dust as though she had come a long way. The countrymen stared at her rudely, for they took her to be a tramp.

"She did not seem to notice the men, but laid her babies on the grass and then leaned over the lake to drink.

"One of the countrymen spoke to his fellows. 'Let's chase her away. We don't want any tramps about here,' he very likely said.

"Before she could bathe her lips in the water the countrymen bawled to her to go away and let the water alone.

"She answered very gently, saying that she was very tired and thirsty, for she had traveled far that day.

"They had no pity for her, however, and told her she must move on at once.

"Water," she replied, 'is for all and free as the air and sunshine.'

"She again knelt down to drink, but instantly the countrymen jumped into the water and began muddying it with their feet.

"Then the stranger rose. She grew suddenly tall and beautiful, and the countrymen were frightened by the anger that flashed in her eyes.

"Raising her hands to heaven, she cried, 'Avenged us, oh, great ones who live on high!'

"And then, turning to the now silent and frightened countrymen, she said sternly:

"Since you love the water so well, may you live there forever.'

"Instantly her tormentors were changed into frogs and jumped, croaking, into the muddy lake, while the great goddess Latona, whom they had insulted, picked up her little ones and vanished as strangely as she had come."

MINER-KINNEY.

Decorations in green and white were the keynote of the simplicity which marked the wedding of Miss Helen Augusta Kinney to Mr. W. Frost Miner at the Kinney home in West Main street Tuesday morning.

The hour was 8:30 o'clock and at that time the bridal couple, unattended took their place before the clergyman, Rev. Joseph A. Bennett, formerly pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist church of this city, but now located in Sistersville, W. Va. The ceremony was solemnized in the music room where an improvised altar had been arranged of great clusters of white roses and astors, which were placed in a background of smilax and maiden hair fern. The bride was gowned in white embroidered voile and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The ring service was read, following which a wedding breakfast was served to twenty-five guests.

The dining room was arranged with the chosen colors of white and green, the bridal table being attractive with candles canopied in green and center clusters of white roses. The following guests were seated with the bride and groom: Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kinney, Walter Kinney, Rev. J. A. Bennett, Miss Valeria Pickering, Miss Daisy Keller of Columbus, Raymond M. Frost of New York and V. R. Lansing of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner's honeymoon will consist of an auto trip of three weeks to Vermont, the summer home of the groom. After October 15, Mr. and Mrs. Miner will be at home in Garfield road, Cleveland, where Mr. Miner is assistant manager of the Holophane company. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kinney of West Main street, and was formerly stenographer for Mr. Miner when the company was located in this city.

Mrs. Clarence Snelling will be the hostess to the members of the L. C. B. A. on Wednesday evening at her home in West Church street.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Katherine Nehls, 40 Poplar avenue, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Haldet of North Williams street have returned from a ten days' automobile trip through Canton, Akron, Fremont and Cedar Point. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Haldet's mother, Mrs. James Rowland of Canton, O.

FISH DINNER WILL FEATURE PICNIC OF OHIO A. I. U.

The members of the American Insurance Union of Central Ohio will hold an outing at Buckeye Lake Park on Wednesday. Chapters from Columbus, Newark, Zanesville, Lancaster and Mt. Vernon will take part and thousands of members of the union will visit the park.

C. L. Jordan, general chairman of the outing and John Friend, G. W. Ford, and H. T. Wolfe have planned an elaborate program of games and athletic contests.

The Newark, Zanesville and Mt. Vernon picnicers will leave on the 10 o'clock car. A special fish dinner will be served to all wearing an A. I. U. badge. There will be a baseball game in the morning, Columbus against a picked team. The Juvenile Drill team of the Columbus Chapter will give an exhibition drill in the afternoon. A special rate has been arranged for those wearing a badge.

STATE MEETING HERE THIS WEEK; ROOMS NEEDED

The state meeting of the German-American Alliance will be held here next Saturday and Sunday, August 23-24. The committee expects from 800 to 900 visitors.

Already all of the hotel accommodations have been engaged and the demand for rooms continues. Chairman Herman Ellsner, new phone 1217, asks that those who will rent furnished rooms near the central part of the city for August 23-24 advise him at once. Arrangements must be made to take care of the city's guests.

AUNT SALLY'S ADVICE TO BEAUTY SEEKERS.

K. C. F. says: "My skin becomes so sparsely every summer, and this so attracts dust and dirt that I have an awful time keeping my face clean looking. Can you suggest anything?"

The method mentioned in reply to Eloise will overcome this condition.

D. N. A. writes: "How can I get rid of crow's feet and wrinkles about the mouth corners?"

Use a wash lotion prepared by dissolving 1 oz. powdered salicylate in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. This tightens the skin, tending to disperse wrinkles, and its tonic effect is more than temporary.

Eloise says: "My freckles are worse than over this year, made doubly conspicuous by a pallid complexion. Is there any cure?"

Ask your druggist for an ounce of mercurized wax, apply nightly like cold cream, removing in the morning with warm water. As the wax gradually and harmlessly absorbs the affected cuticle, not only will the freckles vanish, but the new and younger skin which appears will have a healthy color. Probably you will need to continue treatment a week or more.—Woman's Realm.

- Noise.
- Noise was not invented by the American people, but they have done more to develop it than any one else. If you doubt this go to a dinner party given by an American society woman. The manufacture of noise in most countries is produced by natural causes. In America it is the work of specialists. There are more people making a living out of noise in this country than anywhere else on earth. Scientists are constantly trying to invent new noises. We depend as much upon new, fresh noises as we do upon new novels, new plays and new adulterations. Noise consists of vibrations, arranged in the noisiest way. A loud noise is not to be despised, but the test of all noises is the one that is different from any other we have ever heard. Huge factories are devoted to the production of noise. It is canned, metallized and strung on wires. Nothing succeeds like noise. When we reach the millennium we shall live on noiseless noise. Hasten the day!—Life.

NEW CHRYSANTHEMUM.
(Associated Press Telegrams)

Washington, Aug. 19.—"Mrs. Wilson" is the name of a new type of chrysanthemum that has been developed by the experts of the Department of Agriculture for the department's annual autumn flower show. Named in honor of the wife of the president, the new bloom is said to be a magnificent specimen. Other striking blooms have been christened "Margaret," "Jessie" and "Eleanor" after the three daughters of the president. The members of the president's family are great lovers of flowers.

Origin of Norfolk Jacket.

What is the origin of the Norfolk jacket, and why the straps or plaits and belt?

The name is derived from the county of Norfolk, on the southeast coast of England. The shores of the county are marshes intersected by tidal streams locally known as "the broads," an ideal spot for shooting wild fowl. The nature of the country is such that the shooter must carry his own game bag and ammunition, for loaders would be more bother than they are worth. Accordingly there developed a shooting jacket with conveniences for this employment, the belt for the carriage of the game bag and powder horn or cartouche box, the straps to distribute the weight more fairly upon the shoulders. Modern fashions of tailoring have retained these conveniences in a form of conventionalized ornament.—New York Sun.

Mystery of a Missing Will.

In July, 1910, Frederick Holden Turner, a well known London solicitor, had a stroke of paralysis which left him quite helpless, yet with his mind perfectly clear. Soon after his seizure he told his nurse to fetch a drawer from his writing table. He made her take out a particular paper and put this into an envelope and seal it. He then said, "Write on the outside, 'My last will.'" This she did also.

The envelope was put back and the drawer locked.

After Mr. Turner's death his nephew went with the nurse to the drawer, only to find that the will was missing from the still sealed envelope.

The envelope itself was shown in court, but the mystery of the disappearance of its contents could not be solved.—Pearson's Weekly.

No Room For Cream.

"My dear," said the young husband, "did you speak to the milkman about there being no cream on the milk?"

"Yes. I told him about it this morning, and he has explained it satisfactorily. I think it is quite a credit to him too."

"What did he say?"

"He said that he always filled the jug so full that there is no room on the top for the cream."—Farm and Home.

Science and the Milkman.

Housekeeper—What makes you so late with the milk these mornings?

Milkman—Well, you see, mum, the pure food law don't allow us more than 25,000,000 bacteria to the gallon, and you wouldn't believe how long it takes to count the little devils!—Lippincott's.

Cruel.

"Men are really too mean for anything!"

"What's the trouble now?"

"Why, I asked John for an automobile today, and he said that I must be contented with the splendid carriage that nature has given me."—Judge.

CAN TAKE PICTURE 30 FEET UNDER SEA

Men In Submarine Get Views of Fish and Wrecks.

Norfolk, Va.—Ernest L. Williamson of this city, son of Captain J. H. Williamson, inventor of a submarine tube, has caused a sensation by exhibiting pictures taken under the water at Hampton Roads. He showed pictures of fish and wrecks taken at a depth of thirty feet.

It is claimed that with the submarine tube it will be possible to take moving pictures at the bottom of the sea. The tube is flexible and is provided with a windowed chamber at the bottom in which three men can work. Young Williamson was assisted at making the photographs by two companions. They took pictures at night also with the aid of four electric lights. They first took photographs of fish which were attracted to the windowed chamber by the brilliant light. Then they took pictures of sunken objects.

One of their number dived overboard, and when he passed the window of the chamber at a depth of twenty feet the photographer inside got a snapshot. Another picture shows fish nibbling a bait on a hook at a depth of thirty feet.

Ernest Williamson is planning to take a trip to the West Indies, and he promises to return with a film that will prove of great interest. Government officials are interested in the tube, which, it is claimed, will do away with divers and enable men to descend to the bottom of the ocean, bay or river without having to don a diving suit.

A person can go down in the tube in evening clothes and return to the surface as spotless as when he descended.

Napoleon's Weapon Rusty.

In recalling the sword which Napoleon presented to the Russian Grand Duke Constantine at Tilsitt on the occasion of the treaty between Napoleon and Russia in 1807, a Paris newspaper asserts that, although Napoleon always carried two pistols in his saddle, he very rarely used them. His service sword, as he called it, was so rusted in its sheath that at the battle of Arcis-sur-Aube in 1814 he had to call an aid-de-camp to help him draw it.

It is also said that the emperor whose figure in a long gray cloak and "bicorne" is everywhere familiar, had made for himself a helmet and breast plate set with emeralds and diamonds. But on first trying them on he found that he looked too much like a Roman warrior, and he discarded them. This armor that Napoleon had on but once is today to be seen under glass in the army museum.

English Official Red Tape.

In "Memories of the Sea" Admiral Penrose Fitzgerald says that one day, after Lord Gifford had been retired from the quarterdeck for a spell to a position in the admiralty office, an old friend and shipmate visited him there and found him sitting at his desk, up to his eyes in papers, nursing his wounded wrist, silent and morose, pondering a question he did not seem able to solve.

"That pile of papers you see there," said he, "is the result of three months' heated controversy as to whether the boys in the training ships are to be supplied with pewter spoons or whether they are to dip up the new ration of treacle with their bread and without the use of spoons, and we have not settled it yet."

A Fair Compromise.

A partner in one of the theatrical producing firms of the city of New York had occasion to hire an actor to play a small part in a drama he was putting out. A rather well known actor, who values himself and his art with a proper appreciation, applied for the place.

"You play a full blood Sioux Indian," explained the manager. "The salary is $50 a week."

"My dear boy," said the actor in a pained tone, "I've never worked for less than $100. A hundred dollars is my regular price."

"Fifty dollars!" said the manager calmly. "Take it or leave it." The actor thought it over a minute.

"I'll take it," he said, "but I can't play a full blood Indian for $50. I'll play him as a half breed!"—Saturday Evening Post.

THERE IS DANGER

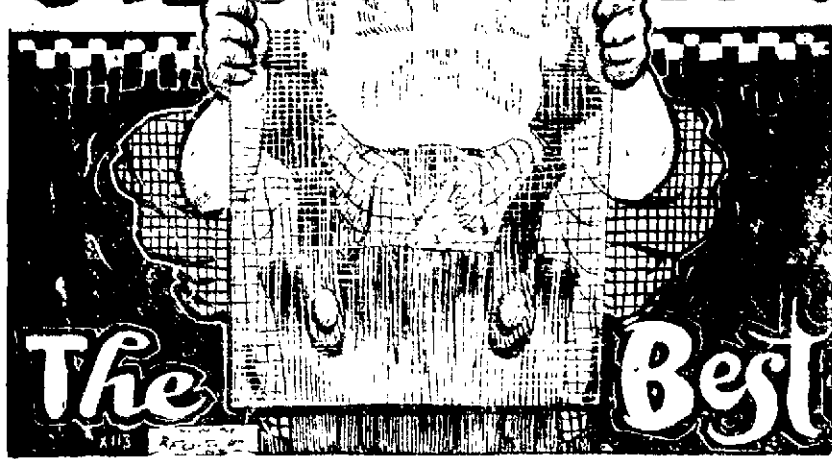

In wearing glasses not fitted with proper lenses. There is a difference in selling spectacles as a business and fitting spectacles as a profession. Many opticians use simple tests for determining what glasses the eyes can wear and call themselves professionals. Our methods are strictly professional—we use scientific tests that always find the cause of the trouble. We prescribe what will correct the evil and overcome the cause.

INDIANAPOLIS REAL ESTATE MAN ASSASSIN'S VICTIM

(Associated Press Telegram)
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—Frank Falk, a real estate man, was murdered early this morning on the temporary bridge over White river at Washington street. His assailant escaped.

Falk's body was found by three transfer men who were assisting a circus to load its cars after a night performance. Edward Akers, night watchman on the West Washington street bridge, heard the shot and was just going over the temporary bridge to investigate when the transfer men shouted that a man's body was lying on the bridge.

No one saw the man who fired the fatal shot, and the police are working without a tangible clue. A revolver with all the shells exploded was found in the dead man's pocket, which makes the theory of suicide impossible.

DIGGS CASE MAY GO TO THE JURY ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

(Associated Press Telegram)
San Francisco, Aug. 19.—When the trial of Maury I. Diggs, charged with violation of the Mann white slave act was resumed this morning it was generally believed the taking of testimony would be concluded before the afternoon adjournment and that the case probably would go to the jury some time tomorrow.

I. P. Diggs, father of the defendant, again took the stand. His testimony began last Friday when the defense opened its case, was intended to show that he had threatened his son with arrest because of misconduct with Martha Warrington.

HOW THIS WOMAN FOUND HEALTH

Would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for All Rest of Medicine in the World.

Utica, Ohio.—"I suffered everything from a female weakness after baby came. I had numb spells and was dizzy, had black spots before my eyes, my back ached and I was so weak I could hardly stand up. My face was yellow, even my fingernails were colorless and I had displacement. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am stout, well and healthy. I can do all my own work and can walk to town and back and not get tired. I would not give your Vegetable Compound for all the rest of the medicines in the world. I tried doctor's medicines and they did me no good."—Mrs. MARY EARLEWINE, R. F. D. No. 3, Utica, Ohio.

Another Case. Nebo, Ill.—"I was bothered for ten years with female troubles and the doctors did not help me. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and every month I had to spend a few days in bed. I read so many letters about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound curing female troubles that I got a bottle of it. It did me more good than anything else I ever took and now it has cured me. I feel better than I have for years and tell everybody what the Compound has done for me. I believe I would not be living to-day but for that."—Mrs. HETTIE GREENSTREET, Nebo, Illinois.

Dr. King.

The Institute opened this morning with a discussion by Dr. King on "Teaching a Poem." He discussed the practical methods of bringing to a pupil the real educational value of a poem. This was followed by a short lecture by Superintendent Begg in which he discussed the influence of climate, and topography of a country upon its history. In many cases the industries and temperament of the citizens of a nation are radically affected by the shape of a country, its coastline, mountains, climate, etc. The subject of the lecture was "The Relation of Geography to History."

That afternoon at 1:15, Superintendent Begg took up the problem of public health and public schools. He has made an extensive study of diseases peculiar to children in their connection with public school health. This was followed by a lecture by Dr. King on the voice and its use in his school of oratory Dr. King has been very successful in treating defects in speech.

"Too many children are born on the back streets and not enough on the front streets," said Supt. Begg in his lecture before the Teacher's Institute Monday evening. "On the back streets we find large families with the head of the family earning from one to two dollars per day while on the front street, among the well-to-do we find small families and in a great many cases no children at all. As a result our average citizenship is growing inferior in spite of statements of authorities to the contrary."

Supt. Begg lectured on the subject "Does It Pay to Educate?" His reference to the need of education was in regard to the enlightenment of the people concerning some of the great problems of our nation. "Men should be so educated," he continued, "that the profits could be divided in such a way as to make strikes unnecessary." He enumerated instances in which men striking and holding up the output or necessities because their wages are too low. This condition, according to Supt. Begg, is due to the fact that men have not been properly educated, the laborers are striking justly, the economic system is at fault.

Another phase of the need of education discussed was in reference to disease. "The United States government spends thousands of dollars, annually fighting hog cholera," he declared, "but how much do they spend to combat chicken-pox, scarlet fever, and other diseases? If I were to have my choice of these loathsome diseases I would choose smallpox. I mean it. I would rather have smallpox because more has been done to stamp out the disease. Smallpox is almost under control."

"I wish it were true that every boy and every girl could stand up on both feet and declare that they were pure and clean and know that they were. But the truth is that only twenty-five boys out of one hundred are clean. When cattle in a certain Kentucky county were infected with cow-itch, the government of the state declared that the whole country was quarantined unless the cow-itch was cleaned out. I could take those same men into my school down on the river and show them how the children from clean homes could be infected with disease by contact with the desk or railing which had been touched by some pupil with disease of some kind. If I could not show them I would pay their railroad fare."

In closing his address Supt. Begg summed his remarks into one sentence. "Each individual must find out for himself whether or not it pays to educate and abide by that decision. If he decides not, he may settle into one of the everyday channels of life and rest without accomplishing anything."

Beats All How "GETS-IT" Gets Corns!

The New-Plan Corn Cure. No Fuss, No Pain, Sure and Quick.

You never used anything like "GETS-IT" for corns, before. You're sure at last that every stubborn corn that you've tried so long to get rid of

"How I Did Suffer from Corns for Years! 'GETS-IT' got Them All in a Few Days!"

is a "goner." You apply "GETS-IT" in 2 seconds, that's all. "GETS-IT" does the rest. There's no more fussing, no more bandages to fix, no more salves to turn the flesh red and raw. No more plasters to get misplaced and press on the corn. No more "pulling," no more pain, no more picking and gouging, no more razors. "GETS-IT" stops pain, shrivels up the corn, and the corn vanishes. "GETS-IT" never fails, is harmless to healthy flesh. Warts, calluses and bunions disappear.

HOME-COMING OF ODD FELLOWS WAS A SUCCESS

The homecoming of Newark lodge held Monday evening, August 18, was from all points of view a complete success. Gray haired old men proud of their long association with the order mingled with the young.

There were present last night the first member initiated when the lodge was instituted in 1867 and also the last members admitted. Bro. Franklin Fry was one of the charter members of the lodge and is still an active member.

At the time the lodge was instituted it met in the hall now occupied by the Redmen. From there the order moved to the Woodbridge building and then to the present location. Many members were present who have been absent for years.

This is a statewide event and it is estimated that 40,000 brothers in this state will visit their home lodges during the week, many of whom have been absent for a long time. Several visiting brothers were present from lodges at Hanover, Perryton, Butler, Nashport, Shawnee, Martinsburg, Hebron, St. Louisville, Frazzysburg, Fultonham, Utica, Gratiot, Etna and Levering, also Pittsburg, Pa., Eugene, Oregon and a brother from Iowa attended the home coming. Many of the members spoke entertainingly in regard to their past experiences in the order, its growth and future prospects. Ex-Judge W. A. Irwin and Sheriff Slabaugh were present and spoke on matters in general pertaining to Odd Fellowship.

Light refreshments were served, and an hour spent in renewing old friendships and making new acquaintances.

MINERS DEMAND CONFERENCE WITH THE MINE OWNERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Trinidad, Colorado, August 19.—Frank J. Hays, national vice president of the United Mine Workers of America early delivered to the operators of Mine District No. 9, comprising the states of Colorado, Nevada and New Mexico, his ultimatum that the operators must grant him and his associates, as representatives of the United Mine Workers, a conference to determine upon arbitration the miners' proposition. Vice President Hays said that a strike would be called immediately in that event and declared the union has $400,000 with which to finance the beginning of a strike.

MOTORCYCLE TOURISTS FROM NEWARK WRITE OF EXPERIENCES ENROUTE TO HELENA.

Repair Man Makes Machinery Parts With File and Hammer—Fromholtz, Hutton and Swartz Enjoy Trip.

James Schwartz, Joseph Fromholtz and William Hutton, Newark motorcycleists, who left here July 22 for a 2,200 motorcycle trip, arrived in Helena, Mont., August 12, and according to their program the trio will leave that city immediately, after a week's stay, for Dillon, Mont., where they will remain for two weeks before beginning the return trip.

A letter to the Advocate, dated Helena, August 14, and mailed from Fulton, Mont., August 15, has just been received, and in it the travelers record some interesting particulars of their trip. The letter follows.

"We arrived at Helena all right. We can say that our machines went up all hills and mountains without trouble. The roads were good all the way, but in Wisconsin they were sandy. This was our route:

From Newark to Mt. Vernon, Marion, Lima, Van Wert, E. Wayne, Plymouth and LaPort, Ind., Chicago, Madison to La Crosse Wis., St. Paul, Minn., St. Cloud, Fergus, Barnesville, Moorehead, Fargo, Valley City, Jamestown, Dawson, Steel, New Salem, Dickinson, Bellefield, and Beach, North Dakota; Rosebud, Big Horn, Billings, Columbus, Manhattan, Logan, Elkhorn and Helena.

On this trip we spent one day and a half in Indian Swamps, one day in Chicago, one day in LaCrosse, and one day each in Fargo and Bellefield, South Dakota.

"Our camping was great. Schwartz, the cook, put up some good meals, with hen's eggs for breakfast once in a while, and of course Schwartz and his gun were there with plenty of game. The Huttons were great on jack rabbits, and Joe Fromholtz was our repair man. He did some good work. He made some pieces of machinery with files and a hammer that one would have thought would not work, but we got through just the same. We had some great experiences. We got caught on prairies two nights. One night where we were you could not find a piece of wood, a tree or a stone as big as a marble, and it was awfully cold, too. We used gasoline to keep warm. That made us tank of home. And one night it rained and we were five miles from a house. That wasn't very nice, but we went on just the same.

"They said we could not get through the Bad Lands but we came just the same by crossing the Little Missouri river over the railroad bridge and we rode the railroad track for ten miles. We paid toll over the Wisconsin river and over the Mississippi river, and ferried across the Mississippi once. "We will stay here for one week and then leave for Dillon, Mont., and stay two weeks there and then back to Newark. Will write again. (Signed) 'JIM SCHWARTZ, 'JOE FROMHOLTZ, 'BILL HUTTON, "Punctures" Fromholtz, 14; Hutton, 2; Schwartz, 0."

FELLOW DEMOCRATS:

In announcing my candidacy for City Auditor and soliciting your support, I want to assure you that my many years of service as train dispatcher and accountant for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad has well equipped me to serve your best interests. As this is my first effort for recognition by the party in a life-long service in its ranks and that my opponent has twice been elected to this office, besides having served a year of his predecessor's time, and is now seeking a THIRD elective term, I feel that asking for this honor is within reason and earnestly urge that I be given your support, for which I shall ever be grateful.

Yours in Democracy,

GOV. COX SAYS SUNDAYS MUST BE TOTALLY DRY

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—Governor Cox's address before a church body here last night is regarded as official notice to the liquor license boards and to all others affected that Sundays in Ohio in the future shall be absolutely and completely "dry." In amplification of his address last night in which the governor declared that he intended to see to it that the license law shall be rigidly enforced in all communities, the governor told many of his callers today that he meant all he had said.

As soon as the state liquor license board announces the appointment of county licensing boards I am going to call every county license commissioner to Columbus and talk straight from the shoulder to them, said the governor. "First of all I am going to tell them that the first one of them that permits a violation of the license law without taking action against saloonkeepers who have broken the law will lose his own official head."

The law is plain. A saloon keeper may have his license revoked on a second conviction.

"The success of the whole license system depends on its enforcement. The people of Ohio expected it to be enforced. Every saloon must close on Sunday and stay closed. This applies to Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo and every other large city with the same force that it will apply to small towns. Ohio will be dry as the Sahara desert on Sundays."

NAIL IN BOY'S LEFT LUNG FOR FOUR YEARS

Now It's Out, and Eddie Munson Is Perfectly Well.

New York.—Since he was seven, eleven-year-old Eddie Munson has been hatching on ice cuts, sliding on sleds, playing one old cat and disporting generally in the hair trigger style of kids and all the time with a nail in his left lung. It is true that all the time he coughed a little. And it got worse—the cough—a few months ago. His parents then worried. The first doctor who saw Eddie said he didn't have consumption—that was sure. He probably only had a slight cold. But he began to cough and cough and cough. Another doctor applied the X ray. When the doctor got his proofs of the X ray photograph he demanded of Eddie's mother:

"See here, did that kid ever swallow anything besides food—anything, if I may ask, in the nature of a nail?"

"Oh, dear me," cried Mrs. Munson, "why, it couldn't be that nail! Eddie swallowed it four years ago. But—" "My dear madam," said the physician reassuringly, "Eddie is the sort of child who could eat tacks. Consumption! Huh! Anæmic—booh! This young gentleman has been sporting a nail in his lungs; but, looking him over generally, I would say that his coffin nails are nowhere due yet—about ninety years off."

So Eddie was placed on an operating table, the surgeon pried the nail out of Eddie's left lung, and Eddie had chicken and ice cream for dinner and said that his chief sorrow was that he wanted that nail to show his pals, and the doctor wouldn't give it to him.

Ocean Ships Sow Seeds.

During the last few years botanists have noticed that there has been a great leveling up of plants on the innumerable islands scattered over the Pacific. The vegetation of two islands 1,000 miles apart is as likely as not to be exactly the same, while formerly there used to be marked difference. The reason is said to be the steamship. The Pacific is now covered with a network of steamer routes. At each port the wind pours a fine powder of almost invisible seeds over each ship and blows ashore some of those seeds received at previous ports of call. Thus ships are, without knowing it, altering the vegetation of the Pacific islands. Trains sow seeds too. At any rate, that is the explanation offered by botanists for the way in which the middle west is growing plants that once belonged to the Atlantic coast. Even the barren eastern slopes of the Rockies are now growing trees that were never planted by the hand of man. The trains have done the sowing.—Stray Stories.

The Split Farthing Club.

A club limited in membership to men who agreed to stint themselves to the utmost in order to increase their possessions was the Split Farthing club of London. One member is reported to have had his garments so darned that there was not enough of the original left to show the texture. The members presented so starved an appearance that it was said there was not an ounce of fat among the lot.

News From Over the State

Rescuer Drowns Also.

Cleveland, Aug. 19.—Nichola Lucicelli, aged 27, gave up his life yesterday in an effort to save his companion, Carlo Amparto, aged 30, from drowning. The men and two others went to an abandoned brick yard to swim in a pond. While in the water Amparto was seized with cramps and Lucicelli went to his assistance. The drowning man grabbed him and would not let go. Both sank to the bottom. Half an hour afterwards the bodies were recovered. Amparto had his arms clutched tightly about the neck of the man who tried to save him.

Liquor Job Unattractive.

Lima, Aug. 19.—Dr. Edward D. Sinks, a Progressive, is no longer a candidate for a job on the Allen county license commission. Dr. Sinks went to Columbus to confer with the state committee in regard to his appointment. There he learned that an expense account, including railroad fare and other necessities, would nearly liquidate his salary as license commissioner. Accordingly he withdrew his candidacy.

Wedded by Telephone.

Dayton, Aug. 19.—The telephone was utilized yesterday in the marriage of Louis J. Matzel and Florence Leon by Magistrate Keene. The couple procured license and when they sought Mr. Keene he was several miles away. Witnesses were obtained at each end of the line and the ceremony performed by wire.

Dives 75 Feet for $5.00.

Jackson, Aug. 19.—To win a $5 bet Fred Thomas took a high dive off a 75-foot ladder used by a high diver at the Jackson county fair. Thomas had had no previous diving experience.

THAW

from Matteawan. Later he freely admitted the facts of which the police were so convinced. He said, however, that he would fight any effort to extradite him and retained Attorney J. Shirliff of this place to look after his interests. Shirliff had a long conference with his client before he was arraigned at Sherbrooke this afternoon. Thaw will probably be taken from Sherbrooke to Montreal.

Hector Verrier, King's Counsel of Montreal, is acting for Sheriff Kelsey, who is the actual complainant in the case. Kelsey charged that Thaw was a fugitive from justice, and demanded that he be held for the United States authorities.

The police immediately after Thaw's arrival here about 6 o'clock this morning, sent a messenger to Sherbrooke to inform Matteawan hospital, notifying him of the arrest and giving him a description of the prisoner. The superintendent replied asking that the man be held. Thaw's companions were not put in jail, but appeared to be under surveillance, presumably in custody of their counsel.

HUNT HIS COMPANIONS.

New York, Aug. 19.—The arrest of some of the five men who whisked Harry Thaw away from the state hospital for the criminal insane at Matteawan in a high powered automobile on Sunday morning was believed today to be near at hand.

Sheriff Hornbeck of Dutchess county who left Matteawan at midnight on a secret mission was supposed to be in New York today working quietly on the trail of at least one of the quintet of conspirators.

Armed with a blanket, warrant the authorities were searching for Richard J. Butler, Michael O'Keefe and George Bulley, Roger Thompson and Thomas Flood, who registered at the Holland House at Beacon, near the insane hospital, just before the Thaw escape, appearing there in cars like those in which Thaw was whisked away.

The description of Butler tallied closely with that of Richard Butler, former state assemblyman from New experience. He was violently shaken up and his lip was cut. I'd do it again for $10 he said later.

Youth Killed on Motorcycle.
Cleveland, Aug. 19.—John Potter, aged 18, died in a hospital yesterday afternoon from injuries received when he drove his motorcycle on a street railroad track and was struck by a car.

Quarrels Over Love; a Suicide.
Beverly, Aug. 19.—Albert Hindadisse, aged 18, following a quarrel with his mother last night about a love affair, shot and killed himself.

Death Claims Banker.
Bloomville, Aug. 19.—George A. Klahr, president of the Bloomville Exchange bank and vice president of the Peoples' bank of Sycamore, the two institutions that went under a receivership August 9, died yesterday afternoon from typhoid fever. He was 50 years old and leaves a widow and one child.

Desert Thirst Fatal.
Marysville, Aug. 19.—Word was received here yesterday from Escondido, Cal., stating that the Rev. H. W. Witter, aged 77, a former minister of Union county has perished from thirst on the desert within reach of fresh water. His dead body was found near Coyote Wells, Cal. Rev. Mr. Witter's horses were also dead from thirst.

Motorist Dies From Shock.
Bellefontaine, Aug. 19.—George W. Ansley, aged 61, banker of Rushsylvania, this county, died yesterday from the shock incurred when his touring car accidentally struck and killed Mrs. Martha Cannon of this city during a July Fourth celebration at Russels Point.

York, that the authorities were particularly anxious to locate him today. The other men named are said to be known among chauffeurs here and it is believed Flood was the owner of one of the cars used by the fugitive party.

If Thaw is found in this country the authorities have hope that he may be dragged back to New York state on extradition papers, although, he is, in the eye of the law a madman here and a guilty of murder in the killing of White. Mrs. Mary Copely Thaw, the fugitive's mother, who received a letter from Thaw yesterday intimating that he would appear soon in Elmhurst, her summer home near Cresson, Pa., arranged to leave at once for her summer place to be ready to welcome him if he dared to appear there to fight against extradition.

MOTHER GOES HOME.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Mary Copely Thaw quietly left her home in New York this morning and took the 9:25 Pennsylvania train for Cresson, Pa., where she will remain until further word from her fugitive son Harry. As she departed she said she had no word from Thaw since the letter received yesterday in which he said all well, and promised to meet her at Cresson.

O'MARA DOUBTS IT.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 19.—"I am pretty sure the man they have in Canada is not Harry Thaw," declared Roger O'Mara, Thaw's guardian as he hung up the receiver of a long distance telephone in his office here this morning.

"I have not heard from Thaw, but I am convinced he is not in Canada," O'Mara refused to say on what he based his opinion but he was evidently pleased with the situation.

CAN BE DEPORTED.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Montreal, Aug. 19.—On the report that the Ontario police have arrested Harry K. Thaw, the Quebec provincial police department today instructed Chief Detective McCracken to proceed at once to Matteawan to assist the local police with the case.

Detective Garrison, acting chief of the province in Montreal said that unless a requisition was produced by the United States authorities in which Thaw was charged with an extraditable offense he could not be held.

John Hoolihan head of the local immigration department declared that Thaw could, and probably would be deported as an undesirable.

THAW'S HELPERS IDENTIFIED.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Aug. 19.—There seems little doubt that the conspirators who effected the escape of Harry K. Thaw, from the Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane have been fully identified. All indications are that the leader of the company was Richard J. Butler, an intimate friend of Ex-Police Chief Devery, and a former member of the state legislature. Butler's chief assistant seems to have been Roger Thompson, a New York chauffeur. He is a daredevil as a chauffeur.

A third member of the party was Thomas Flood, a chauffeur who owns his own car, a Stearns landaulet.

FIRE LOSS

of great value in the other basements. Aside from the smoke the damage to the building itself is slight, estimated by Mr. Linehan at less than $1,000. The heaviest loser is the Greek who operated the confectionery store. Feeney & Brown and Linehan carried insurance sufficient to cover the loss. The Barux boys do not know that their father carried insurance, and were inclined to think that he did not; that he had planned to do so but neglected it.

The Barux boys stated that there were two gas lights in the basement but that they were extinguished before they left the store. The gas engine in the basement was not running. The only explanation seems to be that of crossed wires from the electrical machinery. The fire seemed to originate in a place near the union of two walls at the back where electric wires passed through from the basement. One section of the floor at the back has fallen in and the adjacent section is weakened.

Two of the firemen who were making heroic efforts to get control of the fire, were injured. George Burns was overcome by smoke while working in the rear of Ed Doe's store and was taken to the city hospital in Bazz & Bradley's ambulance about four o'clock Tuesday morning. His condition is reported as serious. F. E. Undergriff was struck in the face by a misdirected stream of water. He was badly stunned and one tooth was knocked out.

VAUDEVILLE IS AFTER YOUNG GIRL SWIMMER

Dorothy Penn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Penn of Shell Beach, whose prowess as a swimmer is attracting state-wide attention, sprained her back Sunday while diving and her parents have not permitted her to do any swimming this week.

Following the announcement of Dorothy's swim of a mile and a quarter at Buckeye Lake Park, Mr. Penn, the father of the girl, has received an offer from an enterprising vaudeville manager who offers $150 for the privilege of using the child in an act. Mr. Penn declines to consider the offer as he desires the little girl to receive all the benefits of an education.

COLT RUNS AWAY; DRIVER HURT WHEN SULKY OVERTURNS

Roy Moats, a B. & O. brakeman, living in Boylston avenue, was painfully injured on Monday evening when a colt he was breaking became frightened and ran away. Mr. Moats had the animal hitched to a light sulky when an automobile passed. The colt took fright and ran away, throwing Mr. Moats out and later throwing itself.

The driver had a deep gash on his right leg, which required five stitches to close. Dr. Harry F. Legge was called to dress the injury. The horse was also badly cut and bruised before it could be extricated from the harness.

PACIFIC

heard the wireless call of the sinking vessel and turned back to rescue the survivors, who had taken to small boats and life rafts.

The State of California, an iron steamship of 2276 gross tons, was built at Philadelphia in 1879 and carried a crew of 75 men. For many years she had carried passengers between Puget Sound and San Francisco.

It was in this way that Miss Lillian Ward, daughter of Edward O. Ward of Seattle, assistant manager of the Pacific Coast Steamship company, lost her life. A mast falling as the upper works were carried away, struck her as she stood on the deck. She was taken off in a small boat and later put aboard the Alaska Steamship company's steamer Jefferson, but died before the vessel arrived here Sunday night.

So quickly did the ship sink after she struck the rock that Captain Cann barely had time to run her toward the rocky beach of Cambier before she hit the bottom.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.
(Associated Press Telegram)
East Liverpool, O., Aug. 18.—Paul, the two-year-old son of Wm. Hamilton, Jr., was burned to death here today when a can of gasoline was ignited by a stove fire.
